

HARASSMENT POLICY

Harassment Policy - explanation

On the advice of legal counsel, we have been advised that including Harassment within our Code of Conduct and Ethics as the better practice. By doing so members are held to high standard and permits action under one policy rather than having to determine where an infraction better fits.

Within the Code an application of the code is included along with consequences and possible sanctions.

Harassment is specifically referenced in section 7.